

LOOK FOR THESE SIGNS

Before sending you kids to school

1 TEMPERATURE

An oral temperature over 100 degrees taken under the arm.

2 THROAT PAINS

A painful red throat, even if no fever is present or a deep hacking cough.

3 CONGESTION

Severe congestion or difficulty breathing.

4 ADDITIONAL SIGNS

- Vomiting more than once in the past 24 hours
- Diarrhea that is bloody may need medical attention.
- Complaints of a stiff neck or severe headache.
- Thick green drainage from the nose along with sinus pressure, fever or tiredness.
- An unusual yellow coloring of the skin.
- Cuts or open wounds on the skin that are pus-filled.
- Lice or nits in the hair.
- Any disease or illness that is believed to be contagious.

